First Command Bank launches mobile banking service

MobileCommand™ allows customers to manage their money on the go

FORT WORTH, Texas – First Command Bank is entering the mobile banking business with MobileCommand™, a new service designed to allow customers to access their accounts through their cell phone or other mobile device.

“MobileCommand is designed to help our busy customers manage their money on the go,” said David White, president of First Command Bank. “We’re excited to introduce this free service and continue to streamline our customers’ daily banking business.”

MobileCommand lets customers access their accounts anytime and anywhere through their mobile device. The service allows customers to:

- Check account balances.
- View transaction histories for checking, savings and credit card accounts.
- Transfer funds between First Command Bank accounts.
- Pay bills.
- Contact the bank via secure messaging for support.

MobileCommand can be used on most iPhone®/iPod Touch®, Blackberry®, Windows® Mobile, Palm OS® (e.g. Treo™), Android™, and Java-based mobile devices. For more information, visit www.firstcommandbank.com.
